THE FIRST VIRGINIA C. P. A. EX- AMINATION.

Held in the Capitol at Richmond No- vember 17, 18, 19, 1910.

Paper read by J. W. APITZ, C. P. A. at a meeting of the Virginia Society of Public Accountants, Inc., held in Norfolk, Va., on May 22, 1912. As one of the three successful appli- cants for the C. P. A. degree at the first Virginia State Examination, I have been requested to relate my per- sonal experiences when undergoing the ordeal.

Using the word "ordeal" advan- cedly, since it reflects my feelings bet- ter than any other expression, and I am sure all candidates will agree with me who sat in the audience present at the Capitol in Richmond. Overworked and nervous by a long time of necessary preparation and study, with the assurance by a mem- ber of the board "that we will have some fun in Richmond," the day finally came when it was shown whether or not a large measure upon the future of the business of the State. My many years of business study and varied experience will allow anything in the opinion of the high tribunal in session, which by virtue of an act of the Legislature and by ap- pointment of the Governor is vested with unassailable authority to decide, in a large measure, upon the future business success or, at least, possibi- lity of the candidates. To fall would mean the equivalent of relin- quishing the business of the State. Public Accountants, while to succeed in passing would promise the reward of a life of ease and aspiration, and the realization of these thoughts in my mind, I ascended the steps of our imposing and dignified building, the Virginia State Capitol, the hall of the House of Delegates and the solemn, inspiring paintings of some of Virginia's greatest statesmen awaiting the memory of their valiant deeds and achievements. The selection of seats was left to us. There was plenty of room left for more candidates, and we distributed
